RUIN APARTMENT HOUSE

Flames Render Number of Persons Homeless.

YOUNG MAN LOSES LIFE.

Rescue of Woman by a Heroic Sensational Affair, She Fainting and Falling Into His Arms, but Fireman Carries Her Down Five Floors.

New York, Dec. 24.—One man was killed and three other men and women seriously burned, while the lives of others were saved by the prompt and heroic action of firemen and tenants of the building in a fire that wrecked one five story apartment house in One Hundred and Twenty-Seventh street. The dead man is Daniel Frizzell, eighteen years old, who lived on the top floor. Three members of the Looker family were badly burned about the face and hands, as was also Fireman Mullen, who heroically rescued Mrs. Alice Looker after her night clothing had taken fire.

Three alarms were turned in before the flames were under control and when the firemen first arrived on the scene it looked as if there would be serious loss of life. Many women, children and men were penned on the roof and upper floors, while others climbed frantically down the fire escapes. Several were on the point of jumping, but were warned to wait for the firemen and their ladders. Cool heads in this way averted what appeared to be certain death for the hysterical ones.

The rescue of Mrs. Locker by a fireman was particularly sensational. The woman was seated on a window edge on the fifth floor with her three grown sons. A ladder was quickly swung in position against the window and while the flames were in almost actual contact with her back firemen shouted to her to remain calm. In the meantime David Mueller, a fireman, climbed nearer, but just as he reached to help her down she fainted and fell into his arms. He made his way down the five floors safely, although the woman's dress was blazing when he reached the ground. Twenty families were made homeless and many suffered from exposure.

Dam Stands Intact.

Yuma, Ariz., Dec. 24.—La Guda coffee dam stands intact, but it required the united efforts of all the crews employed in stemming the tide of the swollen river with sandbags. For twelve hours water came through sluice ways in walls six feet high, cutting the soft ground adjacent and flooding the surface of the dam. Engineers Hill, Sellow, and Vincent spent the entire night on the crest of the coffee dam directing the work. They were taken off in a boat when the river began to fall. The coffee dam is uninjured, but the trunkage system and working implements are still under water.

Three Censured.

Fort Smith, Ark., Dec. 24.—The special convention of that district of the United Mine Workers of America which comprises the states of Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas, called to investigate charges of breach of faith on the part of the district board and certain local officials, finally adjourned. President Stewart and Messrs. Jones and Blackburn of the district board were censured because of decisions in several instances, but the board as a whole was exonerated.

Will Include Several Railroads.

Chicago, Dec. 24.—The investigation began by the government through the district attorney's office here into the subject of alleged rebates will extend beyond the packing house of Morris & Co., and will include several railroads.

Demarest Winner.

Chicago, Dec. 24.—The handicap billiard contest between Calvin Demarest and Fred Conklin was won by Demarest by a score of 3,000 to 1,890.

MISS WILSON EXPIRES.

Actress, Thought Recovering, Has Passed Away.

Sherman, Dec. 24.—Miss Floyd Wilson of Omaha, Neb., a member of "The Matinee Girl" company, who was taken ill with typhoid pneumonia when the company played here Nov. 27, has died. She had apparently recovered, and her father, R. B. Wilson, editor of the Nebraska Odd Fellow, had come to take his daughter home.

Miss Wilson was a beautiful young lady and talented actress and had made many friends among local Odd Fellows and their families, who had called and ministered to her.

Accompanied by the grief-stricken father, Miss Wilson's remains were sent to Omaha for burial.

Suits to Be Brought.

Austin, Dec. 24.—Governor is planning to within a few days instruct Attorney General Davidson to bring suits for forfeiture of charter against all social, literary or charitable clubs which are selling liquor on the grounds the charter is being violated. Elks, and Eagles will be included. It will be arranged that these suits are to be brought by each county and the district attorney in the name of the state and test cases will be pushed rapidly.

The governor intends to seek legislative measure prohibiting the sale of liquor even to members of any organization not chartered for that direct purpose. It is believed only lodges of the larger cities will first come under the ban.

Considering Agreement.

Austin, Dec. 24.—The railroad commission is considering the agreement entered into by and between railroads entering Galveston and Galveston county for the construction of a causeway across Galveston bay. Commissioner Storey said he would approve the agreement, but Commissioner Colquitt said he had not yet reached a determination, while Chairman Mayfield has not yet passed on the question. The agreement is made subject to the approval of the commission.

Went to San Antonio.

Austin, Dec. 24.—It is denied that Adjutant General Newton had gone to New Braunfels and had a conference with the county attorney of Comal county about the enforcement of law there. Colonel Phelps said General Newton went to San Antonio on another mission.

AARON ACQUITTED.

Mistaken For Another Party and In Jail Couple of Months.

Ardmore, Okla., Dec. 24.—W. F. Aaron of Poolville, this county, arrived from Stigler, where he has been on trial for a murder committed twenty-eight years ago. A neighbor woman of Aaron's mistook him for a man named Meeks and notified officers, who made an arrest. Friends came from Texas and one from South America to prove that Aaron was not Meeks. The trial resulted in his discharge. He was in prison two months.

MANY HORSES PERISH.

Twenty-Five Either Burn to Death or Else Are Suffocated.

Dallas, Dec. 24.—The livery stable of R. A. Huey, one of the largest in this city, caught fire and was consumed.

Twenty-five horses were either burned to death or lost their lives by suffocation. Several vehicles, including hacks, and considerable harness were also destroyed. The loss is placed at $16,000. An undertaker company lost two hearses.

Holdups and Burglaries.

Fort Worth, Dec. 24.—Two holdups and a dozen burglaries were perpetrated here early Thursday morning. Robbers invaded the fashionable district, getting a large amount of valuables, including Christmas presents. L. M. McKinney of Greenville was attacked and robbed by negroes. Eighty dollars and a gold watch were stolen. He was badly injured and taken to a hospital. C. E. Oakley of Big Springs was also attacked by negroes and robbed of $165. He was severely beaten.

Drain Drops Dead.

Amarillo, Tex., Dec. 24.—A. R. Drain, an old employee of the Santa Fe railway and a prominent Odd Fellow, dropped dead.

All Prisoners Released.

San Antonio, Dec. 24.—Following Christmas custom, Mayor Callaghan ordered the thirty-one city prisoners released.

Couple Seriously Hurt.

Seguin, Tex., Dec. 24.—A horse ran over W. R. Neal and wife, badly injuring both.

Purse Snatchers Busy.

Waco, Dec. 24.—Purse snatchers have been operating at local depots. They have secured over $600.

THE WORLD'S NOTABLES.
 George I of Greece.
 Arranged for The Bryan Morning Eagle.
 George I, king of Greece, was born Dec. 25, 1845, the second son of the late king of Denmark, Christian IX. When the Greeks finally succeeded in throwing off the Turkish domination and looked about for a ruler they called Prince George of Denmark to accept the newly created throne of Greece. He was chosen king in March, 1863 and was crowned in November of the same year. In 1867 King George married the Grand Duchess Olga, daughter of the Russian Grand Duke Constantine. The rule of King George has been a successful one and no sovereign in Europe enjoys a greater degree of popularity with his subjects. King George has six children. The eldest son and heir to the throne is the Duke of Sparta, who has just passed his fortieth year. King George is a keen man of business and is reputed to be very wealthy, though his civil list is far below that of many other rulers in Europe.

The World's Masterpieces.
 A most acceptable Christmas remembrance comes to the Eagle from the sweet sisters of the Villa Maria Ursuline Academy. This remembrance a "Calendar of the World's Masterpieces" is a calendar for the year 1908, arranged in the order of the months of the year, each sheet bearing a reproduction of the masterpiece of one of the world's famous painters, arranged in the following order:
 January—Madonna della Sedia—Raphael.
 February—The Gleaners—Jean Francois Millet.
 March—The Madonna di San Sisto—Raphael.
 April—The Reading Magdalen—Battoni.
 May—The Age of Innocence—Reynolds.
 June—The Immaculate Conception—Murillo.
 July—Beatrice Cenci—Guido Reni.
 August—The Descent from the Cross—Rubens.
 September—The Tribute Money—Tiziano Vecelli.
 October—Angel Choir—Sir Joshua Reynolds.
 November—La Joconde—Leonardo Da Vinci.
 December—The Master Dolorosa—Guido Reni.
 With the calendar came an expression of kind wishes "S. U. The Season's joyful greetings, From the Ursulines of Villa Maria, Bryan, Texas."

Mrs. J. H. Hammel of Houston, arrived yesterday to spend Christmas with her father, Uncle Joe Hearne. In view of the fact that we are selling everything in our store so ridiculously low we cannot afford to sell for other than cash.

Edge Dry Goods Co.
 Mr. Murray of Reliance left Wednesday night for a Christmas visit to relatives and friends at Pearsall.
 Mrs. A. B. Carr, Jr. and sons, Masters Allen and John, have arrived to spend the holidays with Mrs. M. Parker.

Mrs. Mary Robinson is home from her school at Waco to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. D. Robinson, at Tabor.
 Captain Andrew Moses, commandant of Cadets at the A. & M. college was a visitor to the city Thursday and had business with the turkey man.

We will have an extra force of clerks on duty during the sale, come and feast on the bargains we are offering. Everything strictly cash, no tickets made.

An Old Timer.
 We were reminded yesterday that the 24th day of December was, Uncle H. P. Stacy's birthday and upon inquiry he informed us that he was sixty-four years old and had been in Bryan more than forty years; before the town was started here and about the close of the civil war. This reminds us that there are only a few of the early settlers left that came here when the H. & T. C. railroad was the terminus. Uncle Pete is a contractor and has been instrumental in building the town as you see it today. The Eagle joins friends in wishing many returns of the day.
 Little Miss Bernice Harris is home from the institute for the blind at Austin, where she is studying, to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harris.
 Be on hand early and get the first pick of the vast number of bargains we are offering in seasonable merchandise. Strictly cash. No tickets made during the sale.

FATE METED HARRIS.
 To Be Whipped and Then Have His Head Cut Off.
 Union City, Tenn., Dec. 24.—In the trial of the night riders the state introduced new witnesses to strengthen its case against those indicted for the murder of Captain Rankin.
 William Roberts of Reelfoot lake man, was solicited by Arthur Cload to join. He refused, whereupon Cload told him the riders proposed to get "Judge Harris, whip him and cut off his head."
 "And who is to go?" said Cload. "You will have to go whether you want to or not."
 The night riders were never able to get Harris, as the grounds and approaches to his house are electrically mined and it would stand a siege of a week.

Bury Trees For Human.
 Macon, Ga., Dec. 24.—A peculiar mistake took place near here.
 A crowd of grief stricken colored people consigned an assignment of fine pear trees to a grave at Bolingbroke just at dark, thinking they were the remains of Tooger Adams, a negro woman, whose death was due to a stab from another negro woman at Tybee.
 The police had the case and worked it out, finding that the dead woman formerly lived in Bolingbroke and notified them that the remains would be sent on a Central train. When the box arrived containing the pear trees it had such an appearance of a coffin that the party took charge.

Disastrous Fire at Taft.
 Muskogee, Okla., Dec. 24.—A disastrous fire of supposed incendiary origin breaking out in the business district of Taft, a small town near here. It completely destroyed the entire business district. The Bank of Taft, the hotel and the principal business houses being burned, were totally destroyed.

Liquor Men Organize.
 Muskogee, Okla., Dec. 24.—To counteract the effect of the recent law enforcement crusade a close organization among the liquor men was formed. A fund will be raised by levying upon the liquor men of the city to wage an effective campaign for a wet town. The local officers are trying to ascertain the identity of the ring leaders of the association as a basis of prosecution.

Suspended For Three Years.
 New York, Dec. 24.—W. H. Martin and Thomas Moorhead, members of the firm of Marshall, Spader & Co., stock brokers, were suspended from the New York stock exchange for three years. It was announced on the exchange the suspended members were charged with doing "business in a manner inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade."

Claims Share of Vast Estate.
 Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 24.—John W. Askern of this city claims a share of the vast estate of Baron Christopher Springer at Wilmington, Del., estimated at $80,000,000. Askern, who is an employee of the Santa Fe railroad here, declares his grandmother, Hannah Springer, was a sister of the baron, and he her only direct descendant now living.

Still Holding Up Warrants.
 San Antonio, Dec. 24.—County Auditor Ramsey is still holding up warrants.
 Messrs. A. B. Carr, Jr., P. S. Tilson and S. J. Bain of Houston, arrived last night to join their families in a holiday visit to Mrs. M. Parker.

THE MANGER HYMN.

Away in a manger, no crib for his bed,
The little Lord Jesus lay down his sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down
where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep in the hay.
The cattle are lowing, the poor baby
wakes,
But the little Lord Jesus, no crying
he makes.
I love thee, Lord Jesus, look down
from the sky,
And stay by my crib watching my lullaby.
—Martin Luther.

CHRISTMAS HYMN.

(By Malcolm Carnes.)

Christmas, what saintly joys are thine!
What wondrous glories rare—
Thou anniversary of Christ,
In whom all glories are.

The star o'er Bethlehem still shines,
And its diverging rays
Search out each corner of the earth,
To guide men in his ways.

No more the faithful shepherds lone,
And wise men, desert bound,
Bow low and worship, while the skies
With angel choirs resound.

They had but seen His star who sang;
What richer blessings we—
The cross, the tomb, the risen Lord,
Through faith 'tis ours to see.

Christmas, I natal day of Christ!
Let shouts of gladness ring;
Let every knee before Him bow,
And men and angels sing.

PISTOL TOTING.

The Bryan Eagle calls for the enforcement of the law against pistol toting and maintains that there is enough law on the subject if it is put to work. That is trouble. The people of Texas pay altogether too little attention to the strict enforcement of the law and outtimes the man with the gun who has committed murder gets less punishment than the negro who is merely discovered with a gun in his pocket.

That a man should start out with the full intention of committing murder and get only a nominal punishment for manslaughter because he did not kill the man who was his intended victim, but took the life of another instead, is making a farce of the laws against gun toting and man killing.—Beaumont Enterprise.

President Hadley of Yale University in a recent contribution to the Youth's Companion said:

"Our statute books are full of instances of laws which are evaded or nullified because they have not the public sentiment of the people behind them. The newspapers are the chief agents in forming public opinion. This used to be done by courts of law and by political assemblies, but the modern newspaper has supplanted both as a forum of public discussion and as a means of public education."

If the newspapers of Texas will make a united, earnest and persistent effort to show the people the enormity of the evil, pistol toting can be made odious and the pistol toter can be punished.

The secretary of the Panama canal commission has announced officially that the great ditch will be finished in six years and will be opened Jan. 1, 1915. Let's get ready to celebrate.

Over at Georgetown the other day a farmer drove into town with a pair of three-year-old mules, 16 1/2 hands high and weighing 2,700 pounds. A buyer offered him $800 spot cash for them but he refused. Plant mules.

The great founder of Christianity, who was also the greatest teacher the world has even known, expressly forbade the use of force in propagating his teaching. Enforced education and puritanical Sunday laws are not in harmony with the spirit of Christ.

O that everybody could realize how powerless the government is to make anybody rich and happy! As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end, amen, everyone is the architect of his own fortune. Every mother's son must work out his own salvation.

The signs of the times indicate that development will make more progress in the next ten years than in all the past history of this imperial state. It is up to Bryan to decide whether to occupy an honorable place near the head of the procession or to be a straggler. Which shall it be?

Hall Caine in "The Deemster," quotes a Manx aphorism: "A man's shirt is close but his skin is closer." Applied to politics, the local government is the skin, the state is the shirt and the nation is the coat. In view of the approaching municipal election, let's see to it that Bryan has a clean skin.

A South Dakota girl had two suitors. Taking advantage of his rival's absence, Tom won her consent and led her to the altar but before the ceremony was performed Bob interrupted the proceedings and pressed his suit so earnestly that she withdrew her hand from Tom's clasp and married Bob on the spot. Our felicitations are tendered to Tom for his lucky escape, but Bob has our heartfelt sympathy.

The difference between Taft and Bryan is indicated by their respective tastes in sports. Taft glories in golf, an importation from Europe, where it is especially affected by the royalty and nobility. Bryan prefers baseball, which in origin, history and character is the most thoroughly American of all popular games. In the late election Bryan received a majority of the votes of native Americans. It was the foreign vote that elected Taft.

Fresh tomatoes in midwinter command fancy prices and a man out Del Rio way is making at the rate of $3,000 per acre on a small patch. He has a little piece of ground enclosed with burlap and covered it with cheese cloth, which protects it from frost and from the too ardent rays of the sun. Hehe he raises the love-apples that are piling up for him a big bank account. Except in the amount of humidity the climate of Del Rio is like that of Bryan and the slight difference, for winter gardening purposes, is more favorable to Bryan. The trick could be done here just as easily if anybody had the nerve to try it.

Retirement of Veteran Officer.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—After more than 31 years' service, Major Francis G. Irwin, Second Cavalry, one of the best known officers in the army, will be retired from active service to morrow upon his own application. Major Irwin is from Kentucky and was graduated at the United States Military Academy in 1882. He reached the grade of major several weeks ago and has been stationed recently at Fort Des Moines.

Abe Attel and "Biz" Mackey

New Orleans, La., Dec. 24.—Abe Attel, the former champion feather-weight fighter and "Biz" Mackey, of Cincinnati, have been engaged to furnish the main bout at the boxing show to be pulled off at the Southern Athletic club tomorrow night. The article call for a ten-round contest, the men to weight at 122 pounds at the ring-side.

Mr. Devalson Buchanan of Harvey was a business visitor to the city Thursday.

Progress of the Rural Schools of Brazos County.

Since the opening of the schools in October, I have visited every white school in Brazos county and most of the colored schools. During my first visits I found some of the schools poorly attended, but for the past two months the attendance has been good, and in most cases I have found the teachers and pupils working with zeal and eagerness. In my visits to the schools, besides advising with the teachers and offering suggestions, I have endeavored to impress upon the pupils the importance of regular attendance and intensity of study. It is so easy for children to waste much valuable time in school and get only a faint idea of what they pass over in their books by forming careless habits of study. I have also used every opportunity of encouraging the people in the improvement of their school houses and equipments. I am very much gratified by the interest manifested by the trustees, patrons and teachers along this line.

Blanton and Cottonwood districts united in giving school entertainments and raised funds with which they have bought school supplies and made some needed improvements on their school buildings.

The people of Edge, in addition to rebuilding their schoolhouse by means of a local tax, have raised funds through school entertainments and contributions with which they have seated their schoolhouse with new patent desks.

The Wellborn people, also, have taken advantage of local taxation and made their school house comfortable for the winter. I predict that before another year passes a new school building will adorn the town of Wellborn. The ladies of that community deserve much credit for their enterprise and energy in raising funds with which they will soon place an order for patent desks for their school.

The Reliance community, under the leadership of their teachers, Miss Eva McDonald and Miss Lightsey, have started a move for the improvement of their school house. Let the good work continue there until you have accomplished your desire.

The trustees, teachers and patrons of Bethel school have not slackened in their efforts to make theirs the best school in Brazos county. In addition to substantial improvements on their school building, the adding of a third teacher this year, besides a music teacher, they have, under the direction of Prof. Borden, raised quite a nice library fund. What possibilities of intellectual growth, literary culture, and social enjoyment there would be if all the schools had good libraries.

Who can tell what influence the reading of a good book may have upon the character and life of a boy or girl.

The people of Rye are to be congratulated for the splendid school house erected there during the summer. Other communities have made some needed improvements and repairs to their school houses and premises.

Let us continue to work to make our school buildings more comfortable and attractive and the teaching more efficient, that the country boys and girls may be given a square deal.

Arkansas Teachers to Meet.

Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 24.—The best programme ever prepared for a meeting of the Arkansas State Teachers' association is that arranged for the annual convention to be held in this city next week. President J. B. Aswell of the Louisiana State Normal school, Chancellor Kirkland of Vanderbilt University, Dr. Russell of the University of Wisconsin and several other educators of national prominence will be among the speakers. The local committee of arrangements is in receipt of advices indicating that the convention will be well attended from every county of the State. The sessions will begin Monday and continue four days.

To The Merchants' Association.

This is to notify all members of the Retail Merchants association that the regular meeting of the Association which was to have been held on Friday afternoon, Dec. 25, has been postponed to Monday afternoon, December 28, at 3 o'clock p. m., and the place of meeting will be Carnegie hall instead of the K. of P. hall as usual.

Scientists Meet in Chile.

Santiago, Chile, Dec. 24.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the fourth international American conference, which will begin its session in this city tomorrow with an attendance of distinguished delegates representing practically all of the countries of the three Americas. The government has extended a cordial welcome to the visitors and will leave nothing undone to make the conference the most successful of its kind that has yet been held.

The purpose of the conference, as set forth in the official call for the gathering, is to "co-ordinate the action of the various American states in the direction of material understanding and sympathetic relations." Many questions of an international character are to be considered, such as hygiene, quarantine, commerce between the nations on the high seas and by overland routes and the political rights of citizens of each in relation to the other.

The United States has sent a distinguished delegation to the conference. Among its members are Dr. Leo Rowe, of University of Pennsylvania; Prof. Archibald C. Collidge of Harvard University; Prof. Hiram Bingham of Yale University; Prof. Paul S. Reinsch of the University of Wisconsin; Prof. Bernard Moses of the University of California; Col. William C. Gorgas of the United States army, and chief sanitary officer of the Isthmian canal commission; William H. Holmes of the Smithsonian institution and George M. Rommel, representing the United States department of agriculture.

Sportsmen's Show in Boston.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 24.—The annual sportsmen's show of the New England Forest, Fish and Game association opened in Mechanics building today for practically a two-weeks' session. The interior of the big building has been transformed into a bit of woodland surrounding a lake where the aquatic performances are to take place. All the features of the previous years are retained, while a number of novelties have been added. Among some of the principal features of the show will be an indoor rifle shooting tournament, under the auspices of the National Rifle Shooting Association of America; an athletic carnival, a fly casting tournament and a new series of moving pictures of fishing, hunting and other outdoor scenes.

County Tax Assessor J. H. McCullough has returned from a trip to our county. That section of the state is in a prosperous condition. Mr. McCullough is just getting well of a touch of grip from which he has suffered since his return.

Mr. A. J. Morris of Houston, representing the rate department of the Houston and Texas Central railway, was here yesterday arranging the tariff sheets on file at the local office in accordance with the tariff sheets on file at the local office in accordance with the ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Among the numerous visitors to the city yesterday was Mr. Geo. Walker of Copperas Cove, Coryell county. Mr. Walker is a native of Brazos county, having been born and reared about four miles from Millican. He has come to spend the holidays with his sister, Mrs. A. L. Dyess of Harvey and other relatives and friends of whom there are many yet living in old Brazos, among whom are John Ferguson, George Price and the Simses of Millican. While in the city Mr. Walker called on The Eagle and spent a pleasant half hour talking about old times in Lampasas and Coryell counties with the senior editor, who taught school there when that was on the frontier and was intimately acquainted with Mr. Walker.

CHRISTMAS GREETING.

In behalf of the business men of Bryan who appreciate the very liberal patronage they have enjoyed during the pre-holiday period The Eagle tenders a cordial greeting and the compliments of the season to each and all of those who have come to Bryan to do their Christmas shopping. Among the throngs who have crowded the street and stores from day to day were many from other counties, some of whom were old patrons of Bryan merchants who have been trading elsewhere of late, while others were new customers, drawn hither by the attractive inducements held out by the Bryan dealers to both sellers and buyers. A number of these have paid their respects to The Eagle in person, everyone of whom has expressed his satisfaction with the treatment accorded him and his neighbors. Satisfied customers are the very best advertisement a town can send out, for every one such will be the means of inducing others to come.

In its own behalf, The Eagle sincerely thanks its constituents, both subscribers and advertisers, not only for their liberal patronage but with equal heartiness and sincerity for their many expressions of appreciation and good will. We are encouraged by these commendations—the more so because we feel that they are not wholly undeserved. With hearts full of gratitude to the Giver of all good, with malice toward none, with charity for all, we join in the universal orison: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will to men."

LITTLE LOCALS.

Mr. J. G. W. Allen of Steep Hollow was a holiday visitor Thursday.

Misses Grace and Tyre Morgan of Reliance were in the city Thursday on a shopping trip.

Today—Christmas—is the only day in the year when the H. & T. C. suspends the operation of its local freight trains.

The Christmas crowds shopped early—they also shopped late and in some lines the business record of the past year was considerably advanced.

The frame cottage belonging to Mr. John Ettle, situated on Caldwell street, which was damaged by fire some months ago, is undergoing extensive repairs at the hands of carpenters and builders.

Sheriff Conlee was called to Millican this afternoon to investigate the robbery of a store which occurred last night. The store was owned by Mr. A. J. Edwards, but the amount of goods made away with was not mentioned in the message which the sheriff received.

Mr. Ernest Scott of Sherman, Misses Allie, Lula and Stella Dunnica of San Antonio, and Mrs. Leone Jones of Bremond were here to attend the funeral of Mr. Scott's infant boy, which occurred at the residence of Mr. Albert Hannaman at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, with interment beside its mother, who was buried here a few weeks ago in the city cemetery.

Rev. T. H. Morris, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the services. "A good place to camp," is depicted in the extreme south window of Buchanan-Moore's furniture establishment on Moses street. The arrangement of the window is designed to advertise the saddlery department of the firm, and represents a cowboy, typically attired, sleeping on the broad prairie, with his head pillowed on a handsome saddle chosen from the stock within. The cowboy's pony is picketed nearby, the end of the lariat fastened to the horn of the saddle. The figure is equipped with boots, spurs and a "gun," and the idea which primarily is to advertise the saddles at this store, is well worked out.

THE COTTON MARKET.

Liverpool opened and closed 2 points better than Wednesday. Spot sales of only 4,000 bales against twice that number the day previous were rather discouraging.

The American markets responded to Liverpool's advance, opening 3 to 4 points higher than Wednesday's close, which price was maintained throughout the extremely narrow and quiet session.

Advices from the other side are to the effect that trade conditions in Europe are not satisfactory, and Manchester spinners have under consideration the advisability of working short time during January and February.

In the words of a local buyer, it is believed the spinners are "four flushing." The Europeans are loaded up on stock, however.

The local quotations are unchanged from those of Tuesday.

THE WINNERS.

After a very spirited contest Miss Maude Read wins the $15 doll and Master Clyde Gregg the $5.00 worth of fireworks offered by Walker's 5 and 10 cent store for the most popular girl and boy in Bryan.

Mr. Walker, manager of this Toy and Christmas Goods Paradise, appointed Messrs. J. V. Brogdon, Jesse Henry and John R. Cole to count the votes and make the return, which was as follows.

Miss Maude Read.....2275 votes
Master Clyde Gregg.....1160 votes
Christmas 1908 will long be remembered by the happy winners and they will always have a warm spot in their hearts for Mr. Walker.

CHRISTMAS DAY.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Feast of the Nativity Services.

The usual festive services will be held in this church on Christmas morning, 11 a. m. Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and Sermon.

Subject: Who were the Shepherds to Whom the Angel and Heavenly Host appeared on the first Christmas morning?

Misses Alline Rhode and Nellie Cole left yesterday for a holiday visit to relatives and friends in Cleburne.

Mr. A. L. Dyess of Harvey returned yesterday from Buffalo, Leon county, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Pate and her family, who will again become residents of Brazos county.

LITTLE ROCK FATALITIES.

Two Men Meet Death by Others, Third Suicides.

Little Rock, Dec. 24.—Two people, one a negro, were shot and killed, and another committed suicide at Little Rock.

Ambrose Alexander, a white boy, was shot through the breast while hunting. It is believed the shooting was accidental, although no one saw it.

Albert Hines of Oklahoma City, committed suicide in a saloon by taking strychnine. No cause for the act is known.

Fred Lamolin, a negro, shot by Louis Gershner, following a quarrel died.

LOOKS FOR REVERSAL.

Haywood Says Decision Will Amalgamate Organized Labor.

Denver, Dec. 24.—In discussing the decision of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, whereby Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison were sentenced to imprisonment for alleged violation of the courts' injunction, W. D. Haywood, former secretary-treasurer of the Federation of Western Miners but now lecturing for the cause of Socialism, expressed the opinion that "it will be one of the strongest factors in amalgamating the forces of organized labor."

He said he believed the decision surely will be reversed by the court of appeals.

Much Money to Be Invested.

Houston, Dec. 24.—Five million dollars will be invested in the new manufacturing town of Penn City, which is to be established near Houston on Buffalo bayou soon. The company has just secured an Arizona charter, capitalized at $2,000,000. J. S. Brown of Pittsburg heads the project. It will turn out steel rails, machinery and tools, and save Texans thousands yearly on freight.

Spencer General Agent.

Amarillo, Tex., Dec. 24.—A. B. Spencer of Amarillo has been appointed to fill the new office of general agent of the Frisco and Rock Island railways for the Panhandle country. This will include part of New Mexico and Oklahoma. Increased business caused this action.

Hangs Herself.

Paragould, Ark., Dec. 24.—Miss Mollie McConnell, aged forty years, a wealthy woman of this place, committed suicide by hanging herself from a rafter in her woodshed. She fixed the loop in the rope from the top of a step ladder and then kicked the temporary scaffolding away. Ill health and worry over her brother's marital troubles is thought to have caused the suicide.

Makes Assignment.

Paragould, Ark., Dec. 24.—The large mercantile firm of George W. Cox & Co., made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, with liabilities amounting to $40,000 and assets of $30,000. The firm has had a large business, but bad collections caused the failure. R. P. Taylor is made trustee.

Decision Monday.

Nashville, Dec. 24.—In the criminal court Judge Hart said he would give the decision Monday morning in the hearing of application for bail for Colonel Cooper, Robin Cooper and former Sheriff Sharp, charged with the murder of Senator Carmack. The defense introduced no witnesses and submitted the case without argument.

To Be Tried in February.

Ardmore, Okla., Dec. 24.—The Foose boys, charged with killing Luther Ford, a boy of twelve, with bullets aimed at William Ballew on the evening of Dec. 1, and William Ballew charged with killing Irb Foose in May, 1907, will be tried here the second week in February before a special judge.

Ryan Resigns From Many.

New York, Dec. 24.—Thomas F. Ryan, admittedly one of the greatest powers in the financial world, announced that yielding to the advice of his physicians he had resigned from the directorate of thirty-one corporations.

Castro Virtually Abdicates.

Berlin, Dec. 25.—Cipriano Castro has given a statement to the Associated Press which amounts virtually to an abandonment of his present claims to the presidency of the Venezuelan republic.

Dolphin Enters Harbor.

Willemstad, Dec. 24.—The United States gunboat Dolphin has entered the harbor.

Punishment Left to Court.

Ardmore, Okla., Dec. 24.—Following a bitter arraignment by County Attorney Mathers the jury in the Mulkey case retired. Within two hours they returned a verdict of manslaughter in the first degree and left the punishment in the hands of the court. Mulkey was charged with the killing of Dennis Lawson on the night of Dec. 3 at the home of the former in this county.

Execution Date Set.

Dallas, Dec. 24.—Judge Nelms passed the death sentence upon Bob Smith, a negro, convicted of killing another negro two years ago. The date of execution is Feb. 12. Smith's only hope is in executive clemency or writ of error to the federal supreme court.

An Added Attraction.

"Ah, Elsie, it is fine to be married to an officer—such a beautiful uniform and so many decorations!"
"Yes, and, besides that, he'll have a band at his funeral!"—Wahre Jacob.

HIS ALIBI.

It Cleared the Accused, but Furnished an Odd Sequel.

A highly respectable gentleman arrived at York one evening with luggage and dined well, went to bed early, rose in good time and had a substantial breakfast. After this meal he casually asked the landlord if there was anything of special interest in York. "The assizes are on, but I do not know if there is anything particularly interesting in the list," was the response.

"Thanks," drawled the stranger. "I'll look in if I happen to pass the court and see."

He did look in and heard a follower of Dick Turpin in the dock, charged with highway robbery, pleading his innocence vehemently to a stolid judge and jury, who, with firm faces, did not look as if they placed much credence in the prisoner's profession of innocence. Suddenly the prisoner caught sight of the stranger, who had strolled in from the hotel out of curiosity.

"Here, thank God, is some one who can prove my innocence!" cried the prisoner, pointing to the stranger, who was agitated at becoming the center of interest so unexpectedly.

He seemed astonished and shook his head.

"Oh, yes," cried the accused; "just think! You were at Dover—a long way from here. You came out of the Ship hotel, and I took your luggage in a wheelbarrow to the Calais packet at the pier. That was the day I am supposed to have committed the crime up here."

The stranger seemed bewildered. The judge, struck with the tragic earnestness of the prisoner, questioned the stranger, but the latter could not assist him much.

"Have you any notebooks," asked the judge—"any memorandum of your movements on that day?"

"I am a merchant," replied the stranger, "connected with an old established firm of bankers in London. I travel a lot and of course enter everything in my books. Here are my keys if the court cares to send to my hotel and bring here the books out of my case. I can easily settle the point."

The books were fetched. The gentleman had been in Dover that day and had left by the Calais packet. This was sufficient for the judge and jury. The prisoner was acquitted.

Comic sequel: Both the "banker from London" and the highwayman were placed in the same dock shortly afterward charged with daring burglaries in the neighborhood.—Harry Furness in London Standard.

The Usher Woke Up.

At a certain county court the judge is in his private capacity a kind hearted man. The usher of the court is aged—very aged—but as he had been a faithful servant for many years he was retained in that capacity. One morning he fell asleep in court and began to snore. The noise he made naturally disturbed court proceedings, but the judge displayed great tact in dealing with the matter.

"Usher Jones," he called out loudly, "some one is snoring."

The usher woke up. He jumped to his feet and glared ferociously round. "Silence!" he roared. "There must be no snoring in court!"—Exchange.

Without Imagination.

There is a certain New York business man of a rather waggish disposition who contends that his wife has no imagination.

At dinner one night he chanced to mention a tragic circumstance he had read in the evening paper on his way home. A passenger on a transatlantic steamer had fallen overboard in mid-ocean and had never been seen again.

"Was he drowned?" asked the wife. "Of course not," answered the irrepressible hubby, "but he sprained his ankle, I believe!"—Lippincott's.

Heartless Gamblers.

The rage for gambling at White's and Almack's clubs in London in other days led to most outrageous betting, as to which Walpole tells what he calls a good tale: A man dropped down in a fit before the door and was carried inside. The club instantly made bets as to whether he would die or not, and when a doctor was called in to attend him his ministrations were interfered with by the members because, they said, these would affect the fairness of the bets.

Pitiful Sales.

Kits of sailors lost at sea are sold regularly at auction at the Albert docks in London. The sale provides many a pitiful sight. Most of the kits are contained in the regular sailor's sea chest, all marked with the name of the ship from which they come. It is not unusual for those who have lost friends or relatives at sea to attend these auctions, and there are times when the first news of such a loss comes through the recognition of familiar objects.

A Fair Offer.

Reformed.

"I hear your son is something of an aviator, Mrs. Comeup."
"Well, to tell the truth, he was a bit that way, but he's taken the pledge."
